

Financial Aid Policy

MAD School are committed to promoting equal opportunities for all individuals, regardless of their socioeconomic status. We recognize that individuals from underserved groups face various challenges in accessing educational opportunities, and we want to make our courses more accessible to them. Therefore, we are pleased to offer financial aid for Underserved Groups.

Types of Financial Aid

1. Extended payment plan
 - structured schedule of payments that allows a student to pay for a course over time.

completion of full payment for the course fee is necessary to receive the course certificate.*

2. Scholarships
 - for students who may not be able to afford the full cost of education without additional support.
 - for students working in non-profit Organisations (NGOs)
3. Course Fee Discount
 - Eligible Individuals may receive a discount of up to 25% off the course fee.

Eligibility

Individuals who belong to any of the following underserved groups are eligible for the discount.

- Low-income individuals
 - refers to the combine monthly gross household income below SGD2,000.
- Disabled individuals
 - refers to individuals who have physical impairments that may limit their ability to perform certain activities or participate fully in society.
- Refugees
 - refers to individuals granted a special legal status by the country in which they seek refuge in.

Application

Applicant must provide documentation proving their eligibility. This may includes:

- Proof of income
- Any other documents or proof related to your application

Terms and Conditions:

- The discount policy is subject to the availability of funds.
- The discount is applicable only to the course fees and does not cover any additional expenses or other course materials.
- The discount cannot be combined with any other discounts or promotions.
- MAD School reserves the right to reject any discount applications that do not meet the eligibility criteria or fail to provide the necessary documentation.
- MAD School may request additional information from applicants to verify their eligibility.
- The discount policy may be modified or terminated at any time at the School's discretion.
- Applicants will be notified of the decision on their discount application within five business days of submitting the application.
- The organization reserves the right to revoke the discount if the applicant provides false or misleading information or if they fail to comply with the terms and conditions.